RENTAL GUIDELINES ARE CONTINGENT UPON CONTINUED FUNDING AVAILABILITY AND SUBJECT TO RENT REASONABLENESS.

Amounts include the cost of all utilities.

If utilities are not included, a utility allowance schedule by Locality can be found here:

<https://www.mainehousing.org/charts/utility-allowances>

Shared Housing (When a tenant shares space with other tenants, usually in the same unit, but has a separate lease.)

The payment standard for a family in shared housing is the pro-rata share of the payment standard for the shared housing unit size (# of bedrooms available to rent).

The pro-rata share is calculated by dividing the number of bedrooms available for occupancy by the assisted family in the private space by the total number of rentable bedrooms in the unit/house. If unit is owner occupied, do not count the landlords bedroom(s). Multiply the total number of rentable bedrooms in the unit/house by the pro-rata share # to get the payment standard for the shared unit.
